

Home » AND FINALLY » Preston Rowe Paterson returns to Western Australia

CROMWELL PLAYS THE WILD CARD IN INVESTA BID

NAVIGATING THE END OF THE HOUSING BOOM

OFFICE DEMAND JUMPS BY 33PC

PRESTON ROWE PATERSON RETURNS TO WESTERN AUSTRALIA

12 APR, 2016 AND FINALLY

PROPERTY valuers Preston Rowe Paterson has returned to Western Australia.

The new PRP office in West Perth will be headed by well known property valuer, Cameron Sharp, who was formerly a director of Perth LMW Hegney.

“We are delighted to be returning to the West Australian market after not having a formal presence here for the last seven years,” PRP national CEO Greg Sugars said.

“Cameron has a proven track record of providing exceptional service to clients and we very pleased to welcome him on board. I am confident that this track record of personalised service will be extended to our new and growing client base,” he added.

“Our association with Preston Rowe Paterson allows us to harness the expertise, technology and resources of an international network whilst still retaining local ownership.” Sharp said.

Property Review Australia