- Conduct asset valuations specifically for financial reporting in accordance with relevant accounting standards.
- Provide expert advice to clients on market trends and property strategies
- Mentor and support junior valuers and assist with team leadership
- Prepare detailed valuation reports and present findings to stakeholders
- Build and nurture relationships with clients and industry professionals

About You

- Certified Practising Valuer (CPV) with API membership (essential) and RICS membership is highly regarded
- Extensive experience in investment and development valuations
- Demonstrated skills in asset valuation for financial reporting
- Bachelor's degree in Property or related field (essential); Master of Applied Finance (highly regarded)
- Strong analytical and report-writing skills
- Excellent communication, negotiation, and client management abilities
- Thorough knowledge of the Sydney property market
- Team player with a proactive, can-do attitude

What We Offer

- Attractive remuneration package
- Flexible work arrangements and a supportive culture
- Career progression and professional development opportunities
- Prime Sydney CBD office location – close to transport, cafes, and amenities
- Be part of a respected, collaborative, and trusted firm
